

Christmas Day

My name is and I live with my

Soon it will be Christmas.

Christmas day is different to a normal day.

On Christmas day there will be presents in my stocking.

I can open them when it is morning.

There will be more presents to open around the tree.

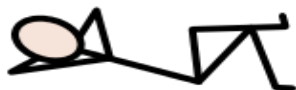

Everyone will open their presents. We will take turns.

I can open my presents when it is my turn.

Christmas day will be a busy day.

I can have some chill out time if it is too busy for me.

Special thanks to our autism expert, Jane Pidduck, for sending us this social story